

Wrangle and Analyze Data - #WeRateDogs

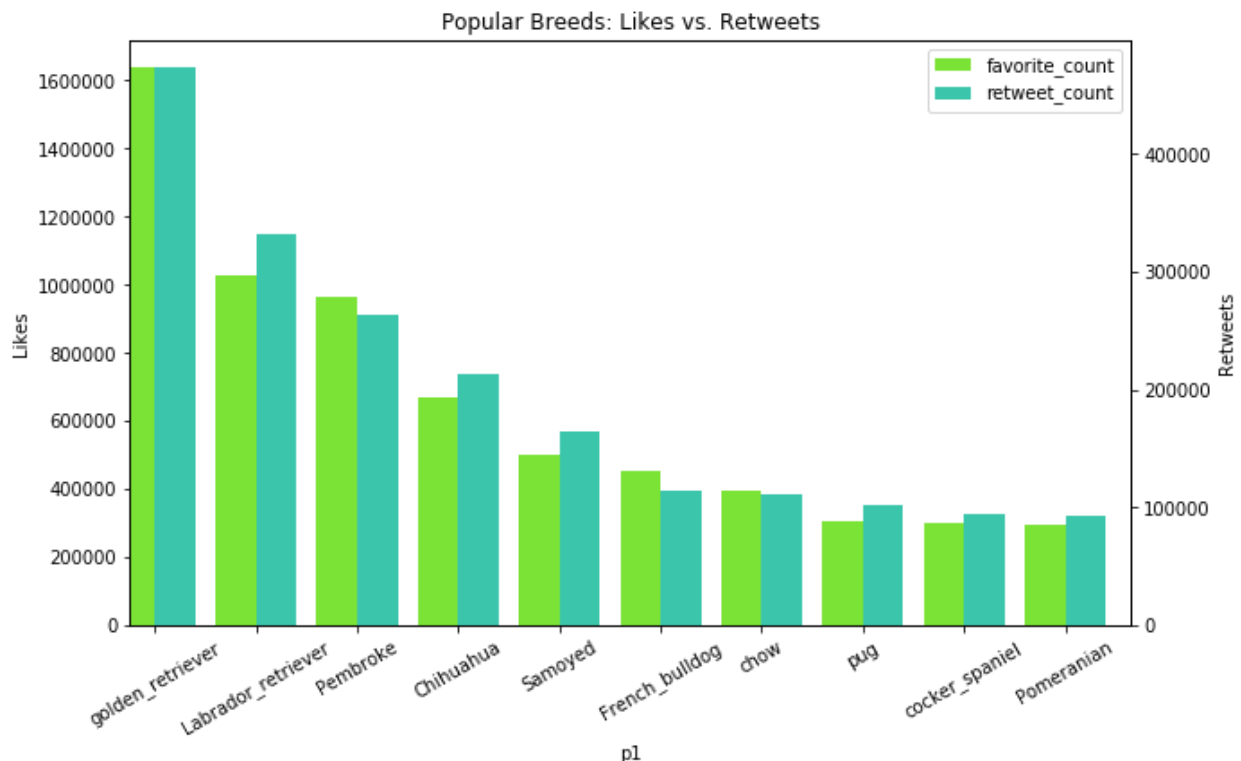

Act Report

Introduction

WeRateDogs is a twitter account that allows people to rate dogs with comments about the dog. The account lets people to send photos of their dogs and get interactions. Dogs are rated from 1 to 10 but some times evaluation exceeds 10/10.

Now let's see some of the observations we made.

1-The most popular dog type

As seen, Golden Retriever is the most popular dog type getting the most retweets and likes.

WeRateDogs™ ✓
@dog_rates

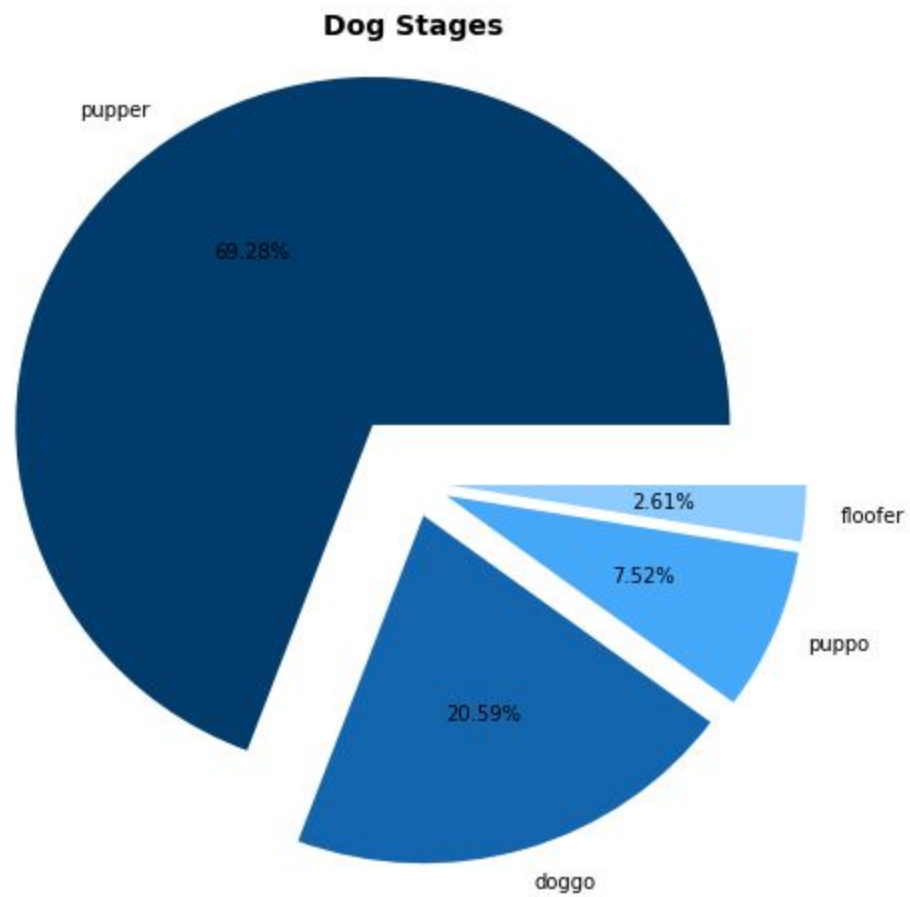

This is Pake. His parents just graduated and he was feeling a little left out. Not anymore. 14/10 barkalaureate inbound

 Chris

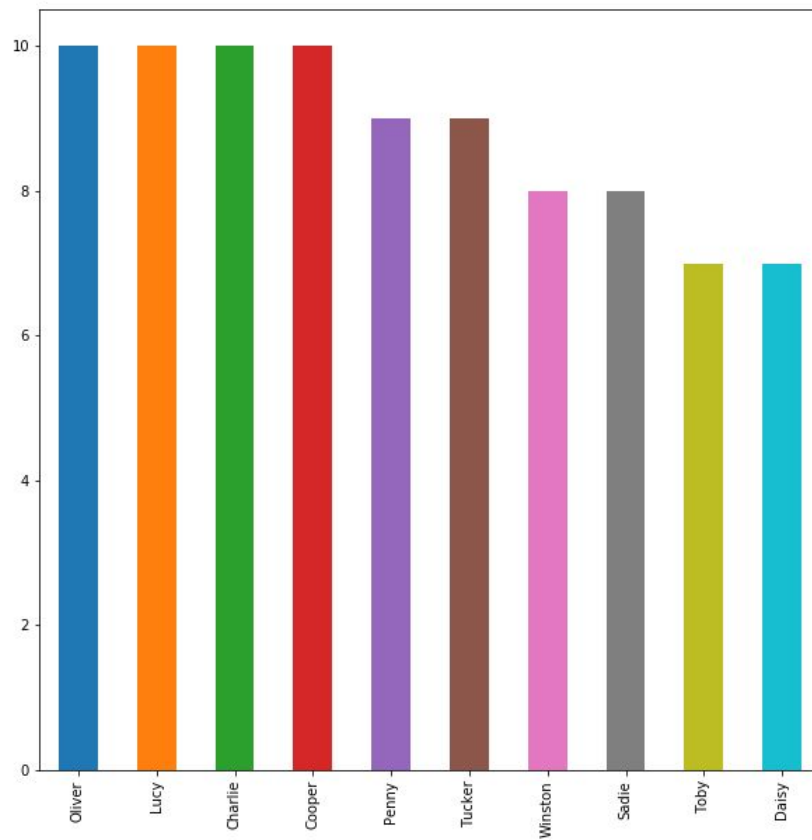

This is the golden retriever that is most popular. So cute as we can see!

2-Most common dog stage:

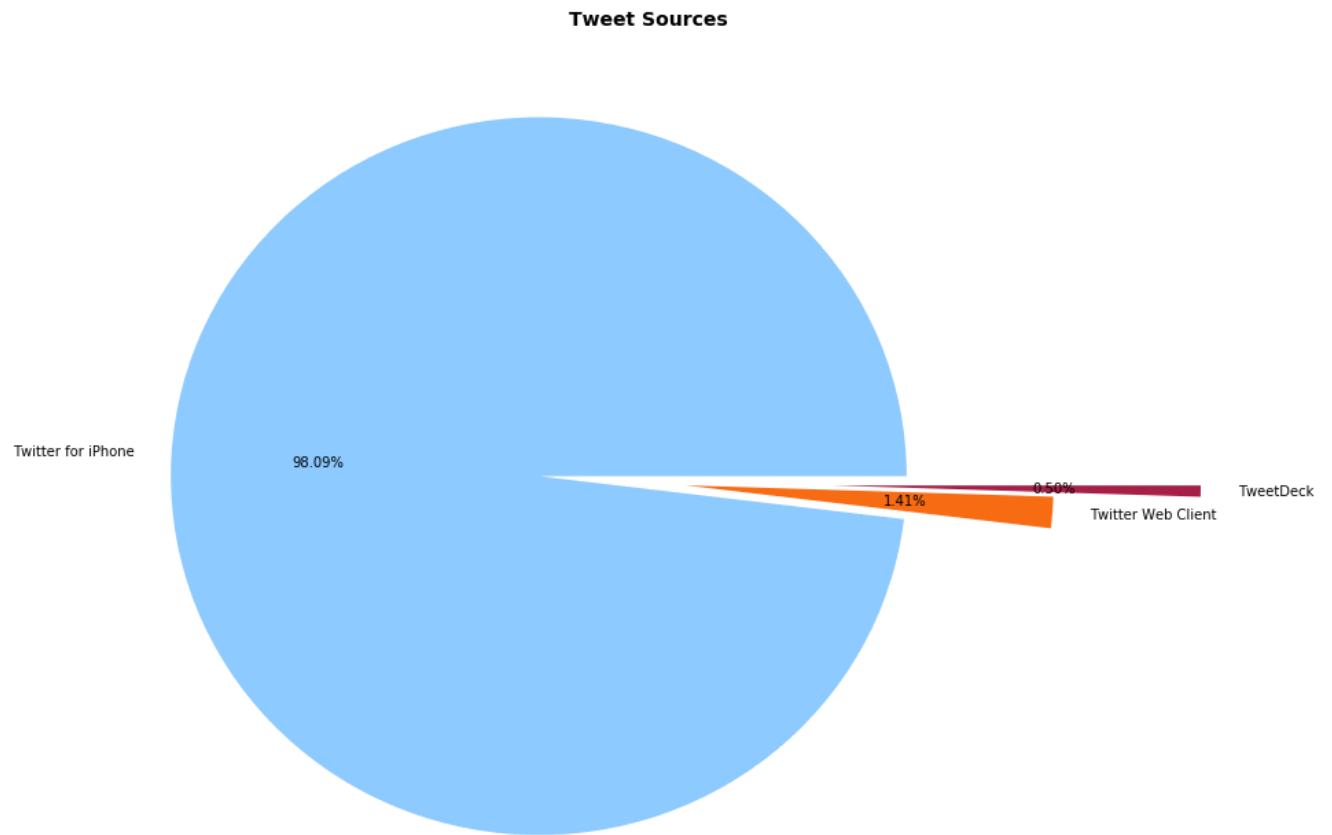

As we can see, pupper is the most common dog stage and floofer is the least.

3- The most popular name:

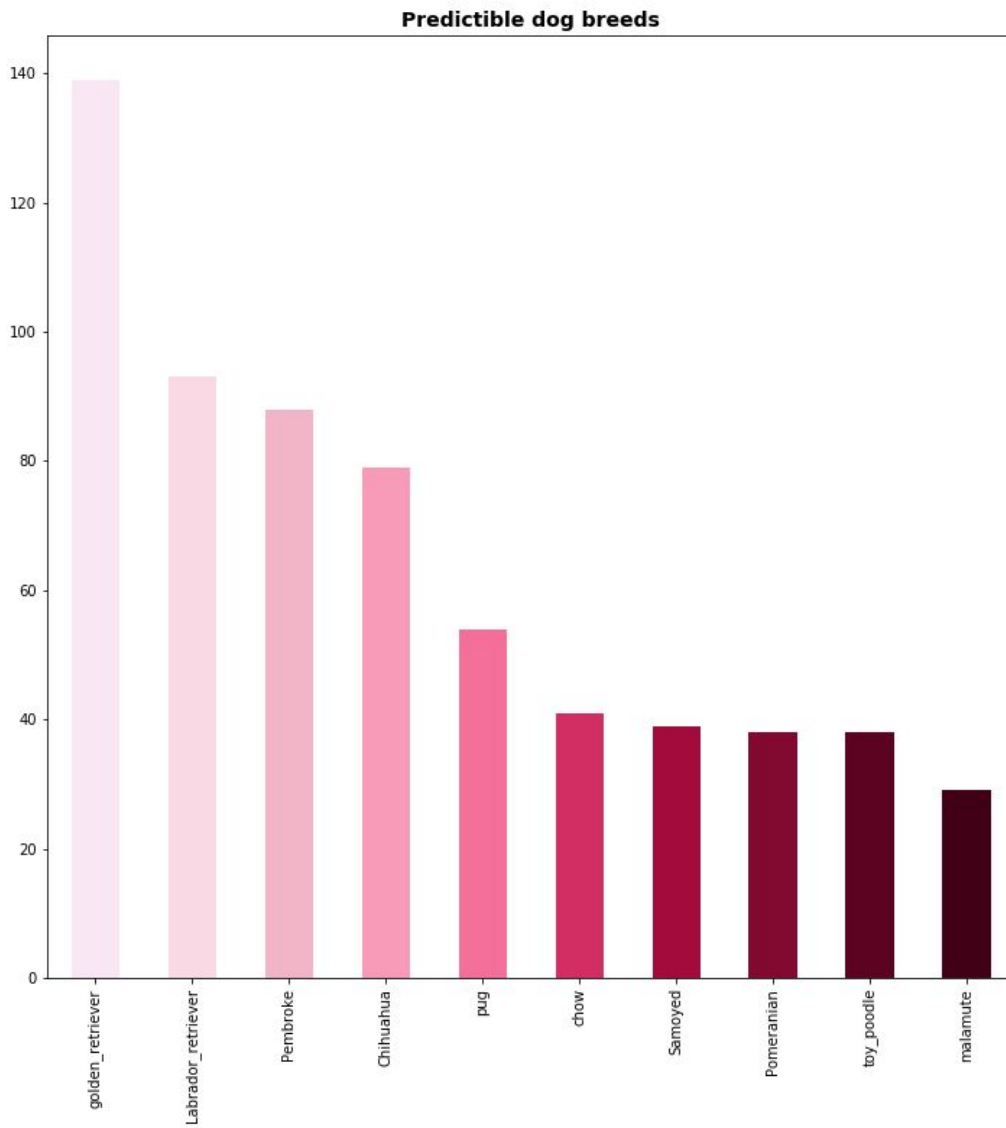

The names Oliver, Lucy, Charlie and Cooper share the same popularity as we can see.

4- The source of tweets

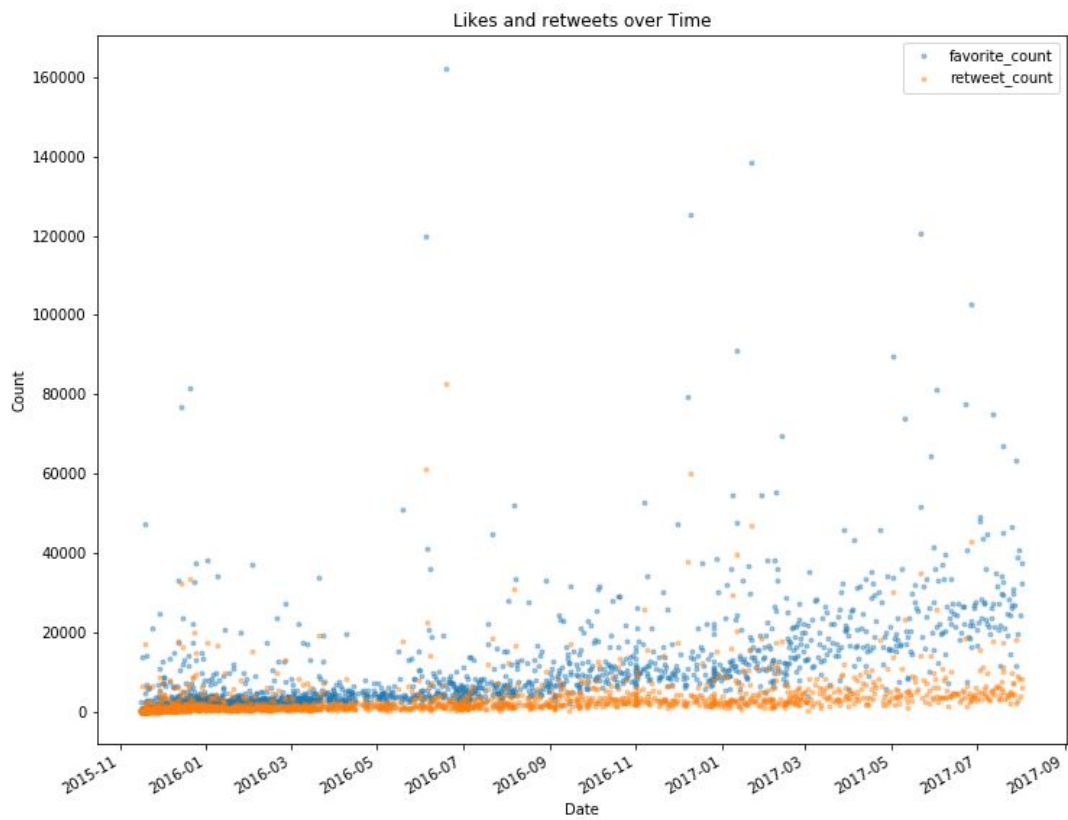

The most common source of tweets is Twitter for iPhone and the least is TweetDeck.

5- The most predictable breed of dogs:

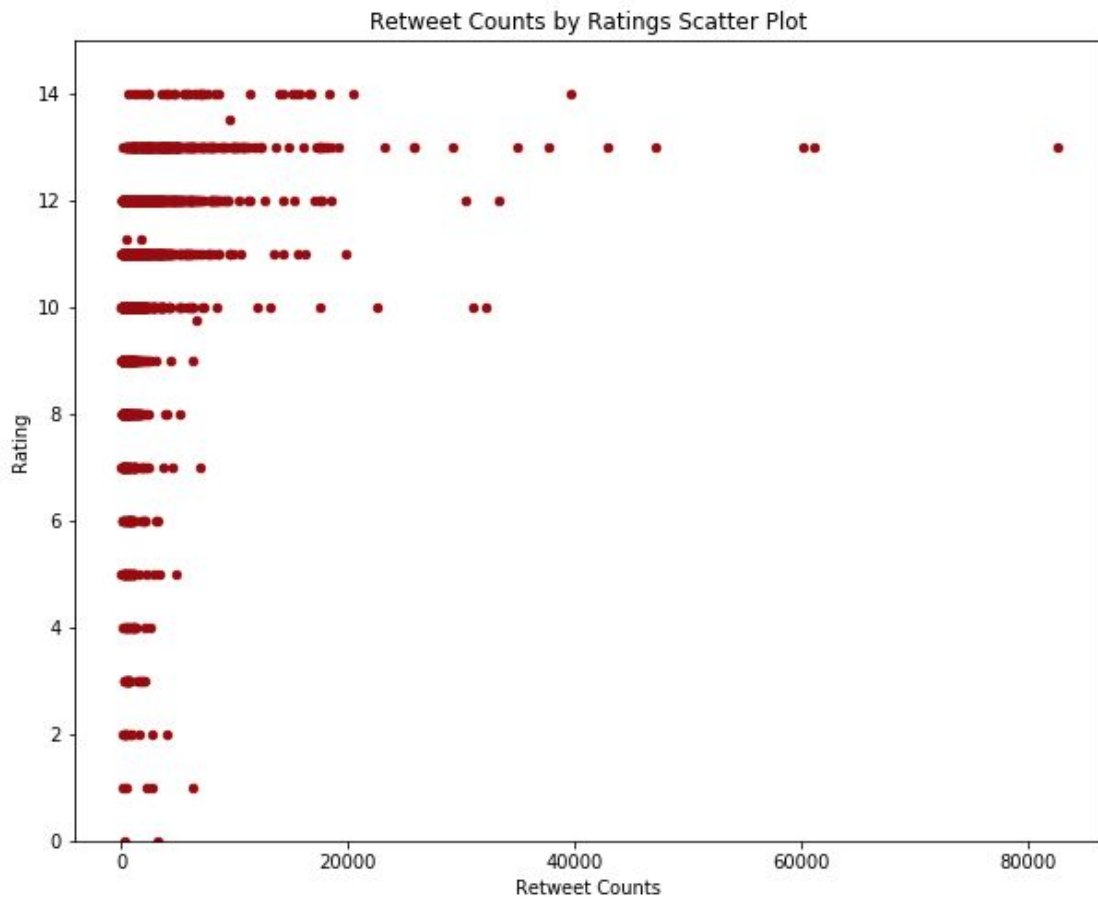

The most predictable dog is the Golden Retriever.

6- Retweet and favorite rate over time

The account popularity increased over time.

7- What is the relation between retweet count and rating?

There is no clear relation between Retweet count and Rating .